Dear Parents and Carers

Re: Important Message

Please be advised that pupils have attended an assembly today, to make them aware of reports in the local area of alleged cases of indecent behaviour (by a male individual).

Pupils have been advised where possible, to travel home from school in pairs or small groups.

I would like to reassure you that the safety of your child is of the utmost importance to us and the local police, who will increase their presence in the surrounding area.

Please discuss this matter with your child so they remain safe on their journey home and during the half term.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
